

Partnering for your enrollment success

The 3E's: Engagement, Education, and Election

At Guardian, we work with you to develop an active enrollment strategy to help employees get the most value from their benefits. Our approach to a successful enrollment focuses on three principles: Engagement, Education, and Election.

The 3E's: Guardian's approach to a successful enrollment

Engagement

Education

Election

Engagement: We provide holistic, thoughtfully designed campaigns that inform employees about the benefits available and help them to feel empowered to select the most appropriate plans. Our communications include:

- Simple, conversational language
- Omni-channel content delivery
- Digital and direct mail options

Education: We offer in person, web-based, and 1:1 engagement options that offer personalized and focused enrollment support when needed.

- Nayya & Jellyvision¹ – Online enrollment tutorials that provide employees with personalized benefits recommendations, including medical, based on their attributes and lifestyle.
- VoluntaryWorks^{TM2} – 1:1 enrollment facilitated by licensed benefit counselors offering multi-carrier and medical plan guidance for groups with 25-500 employees.
- Preferred Partner Program – National and regional partner enrollment firms who provide high-quality enrollment events and can include on-going service and support.

Election: We have established integrations with more than 300 providers. Tap into our deep operational and API integration with top ben admin and technology providers for a streamlined HR and enrollment experience.
